

Liu Ming Hao (1820), Neo Zhi Jie (1820) and Dominic Sua Yong Yi (1822) participated in ‘Our Schools, Our Stories’ photo contest organised by MOE.

Their photo essay was one of nearly 800 entries submitted by students from 191 institutions across Singapore.

It won 'Best Photo Story Award' for the theme 'My School Community'

under the Youth category.

Presenting to you
their award-winning entry
'Our Unsung Heroes'

“School is more than just a building – it is a community of people contributing in different ways to create the conducive learning environment we are so used to. Often, we take for granted the efforts of these people, and we feel the need to bring to light their invaluable contributions.”

It is early in the morning. No one is in school yet – well, almost no one.

Meet Uncle Tony, our security guard. One of the earliest to arrive in school and one of the last to leave, he tirelessly monitors CCTV footage and keeps track of visitors throughout the day, ensuring the security of the school.

Ask anyone in the school and you will find out that he always says “Hi” to everyone he walks past. Indeed, Uncle He Dong Chun never fails to brighten up our day, while keeping the canteen spick and span so that we can enjoy our breaks between lessons.

*What beats having a fresh, nutritious and sumptuous meal after a long day at school?
Uncle Teo Chin Kok, the owner of our 'Mix-In-The-Bowl' stall, prepares the freshest ingredients early in the morning to satisfy students' cravings for Yong Tau Foo.*

Ever wondered why the rubbish bins are never full? Uncle Pang Wong Hin ensures that rubbish is always disposed of in a timely manner, keeping our school compound clean and tidy.

Let's not forget teachers like Mr. Alvin Chen who always come to school early to prepare for the day.

So, by the time we arrive in school, we can get started on our learning. We must never forget the people who toil behind the scenes to give us such a conducive environment to do so.

Congratulations.
